DATA PROTECTION NOTICE

ECDC processes the personal data collected in accordance with Regulation (EC) 2018/1725². The data processing operation is performed under the responsibility of the Director of ECDC, who is identified as the Controller, with the purpose of safeguarding the independence of ECDC and its constituent bodies. The legal basis of the processing is Article 19 of Regulation (EC) No 851/2004 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 April 2004 as well as the Independence Policy adopted by ECDC.

Data may be disclosed to the Director, members of ECDC's governing bodies, the Compliance Officer, Chairs of an ad hoc Scientific Panel, the Legal Services Section, the organisers of expert meetings, Corporate Governance Section, the Head of the Human Resources Section, the line manager for staff members, bodies in charge of a monitoring or inspection task in conformity with EU Law, including the European Court of Auditors, the Internal Audit Service, OLAF, the European Ombudsman and the European Data Protection Supervisor, and the Declarations of Interests Review Committee.

For transparency requirements, Annual Declaration of Interests (ADoI), and where applicable, Declarations of Commitment and CVs, of the Director, members of the MB and AF, external experts, Heads of Units as well as Heads of Disease Programmes and selected staff members appearing in the organogram on ECDC's website will be published on ECDC's website. When a recruitment procedure is carried out, the vacancy notice shall specify that the selected candidate will be requested to fill an ADoI and that this may be disclosed in accordance with the defined procedure. Specific Declaration of Interests will be disclosed only upon request. Your personal data will not be transferred to recipients in third countries or international organisations without your consent.

ECDC will not keep Declarations of Interests for any period longer than five years. The processing of your data will not be used for an automated decision-making, including profiling.

In order to protect your personal data, a number of technical and organisational measures have been put in place. Technical measures include appropriate actions to address online security, risk of data loss, alteration of data or unauthorised access, taking into consideration the risk presented by the processing and the nature of the data being processed. Organisational measures include restricting access to the data to authorised persons with a legitimate need to know for the purposes of this processing operation.

You have the right to access, to rectify, to block, to erase, to transmit or to object to the processing of the data. Where the legal basis to the processing is consent, this consent can be withdrawn at any time.

You may also contact the ECDC Data Protection Officer (DPO) in case of any difficulties or for any questions relating to the processing of your personal data at the following email address: dpo@ecdc.europa.eu. You have the right of recourse at any time to the European Data Protection Supervisor (edps@edps.europa.eu).

Exceptions based on Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 may apply.

² Regulation (EU) No 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC (the 'EU Data Protection Regulation')
